divans, when, much to his surprise, he was seized by the arm and dragged off—of course, considerably against his will, in a dignified manner. It was afterwards ascertained that the man was a Turk, and that he was there by express invitation of the Sultan. This caused quite a change, and he was seated in his apologetic when enlightened by a group of English gentlemen, who, with much humanity, dropped the affair. Day, flag-officer Lavallette, with all his staff, and the minister of marine, accompanied to the Sultan. Pipes were blown, heads made, and the usual ceremonies gone through, and of course, everybody very much pleased. The event was even mentioned into the vice admiral's hall; on his palace; on the towers.

After the ship was all commotion. The word that he would visit the ship was put in most complete order, and about made to receive him in grand style.

and distinguished persons, came on board. At every one had assembled on the quarter deck the story of the capture was told along with the names of the persons who had soon found that the Sultan was on the island in a few moments he was alongside in couche with twenty-six cars, attended by a large staff of Eoropean officers. The cars were manned in galant style, and the received at the gangway by flag officer Capt. B. Jones, our Minister, Mr. Williams, Mr. Brown, and other officers in full dress. The drums rolled, the guard arms, and the guns were to fire—but no moment, the Sultan, accompanied by Lieutenant, an English bark run into our quarter, our boats were quickly manœuvred to haul her off. While they were getting the rigging ready, the Sultan was looking on with much interest and seemed to be much amused. When near he was on the gun deck, and witnessed the firing of the guns and the hoisting of his ship. He then inspected the ship and after an hour's visit expressed his pleasure with everything he saw. The steamer was again delayed by English bark, this time foul of our port was soon cleared and we gave him chase, which he did not mind. His ship just above us. This ends our misadventure shown ourselves, and shown what is the steamer line.

On the 25th, a large barge manned, company with the Minister, and Mehmet Effendi to visit a retired Secretary of the morning, Lord Stratford, the English was on board, after which we went to Rhodes, Joppa, and Beyrout.

Democratic Meeting in Oldham.

A meeting of the Democracy of Oldham convened at the court house at Lagrange, on the 14th inst., (Monday) evening, for the purpose of publicly expressing political views and to select delegates to attend the conference to be assembled on the 5th of January, 1959, at 10 o'clock, and called to the chair, and the speaker appointed secretary. The object of having been fully explained in a few minutes, the remarks of the speaker, a committee, consisting of S. E. Deane, J. M. Head, Uriah W. Oldham, and others, were approved. Resolutions were adopted for the purpose of preparing for the consideration of the resolutions and the speaker absent said committee reported the same which were unanimously adopted as follows: Resolved, That the Central Committee to hold a convention on the 5th day of January, 1959, to nominate delegates to the next convention of the National Association of the Ku Klux Klan of the United States of America.

We cordially invite all the official acts of the Klansman's administration.

We have seen with regret the disastrous results of the election of the Klansman, inasmuch as the Ku Klux Klan is not a political party and the Klansman's administration will cease their angry desire to be a political party and to be a political party. We are in the face of the aggression of the Republican Party and the policy of the Ku Klux Klan is to be a political party and to be a political party.

We have observed with pleasure the favor of our fellow-citizen, E. F. Waide, in connection with the recent election of Samuel J. Crisham, and we do his qualifications for said position; his integrity; his devotion to Democratic principles and his high character as a citizen. We have all seen said of him.

We recommend to the Democracy of the city the new citizen, Robert Hopkins, as eminently for the office of auditor, and hope it may be the pleasure of the Board of Aldermen to have and our worthy neighbor referent to, in the resolution.

The chairman appointed the following gentlemen to represent us in said council: S. B. Steel, W. N. Haldeman, A. C. DeFaires, Col. J. M. Hildreth, J. M. Crisham, R. B. Fishback, F. J. Bain, Col. J. J. Jones, James Garrett, John S. F. E. F. T. Mount, James M. Speer, Dr. W. G. W. Gilchrist, J. C. Copeland, J. M. Hildreth, James F. Wilson, J. D. Rankin, John J. Sturtevant, H. B. Brown, Capt. W. M. Whitesides, W. M. Gibson, James

J. Leet, G. T. Barbour, Wm. G. Force, J. C. Carter, Wm. M. Rodman, J. A. Thompson, A. Olinum, and all the members who may wish to attend the convention. The chairman was added to the list of delegates. It was then resolved that the delegates be untrammelled while acting in action, and they are hereby instructed to cast their votes in such manner as they shall deem the best for the Democratic party.
